First Hmong Alliance Church
Of the Christian and Missionary Alliance

Bylaws created for First Hmong Alliance Church Members

PREAMBLE

We the members of the First Hmong Alliance Church of the Christian and Missionary Alliance hereby establish these bylaws to govern our ministry. These bylaws are adapted from the Uniform Constitution for Accredited Churches of the Christian and Missionary Alliance. (A5-8) The following bylaws have been approved by the voting members of the First Hmong Alliance church during its Annual Meetings.

ARTICLE I: NAME

The official name under which this church is incorporated or organized is the First Hmong Alliance Church of the Christian and Missionary Alliance (FHAC).

ARTICLE II: RELATIONSHIP

Adopted from Article II of the Uniform Constitution for Districts of the Christian and Missionary Alliance.

This church is connected with and subordinate to its parent religious organization, The Christian and Missionary Alliance, a Colorado nonprofit corporation. In consideration of the mutual benefits generated and derived from this relationship, and understanding that The Christian and Missionary Alliance is relying hereon in agreeing to initiate or continue such relationship, this church agrees to be subject to and abide by the terms and conditions of Article XVI hereof relating to the reversion of property of accredited churches.

ARTICLE III: MEMBERSHIP

The following sections have been adopted from Article III of the Uniform Constitution for Accredited Churches of the Christian and Missionary Alliance:

Section A. Qualifications.

1. Confession of faith in Jesus Christ and evidence of regeneration.
2. Belief in God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit; in the verbal inspiration of the Holy Scriptures as originally given; in the vicarious atonement of the Lord Jesus Christ; in the eternal salvation of all who believe in Him and the eternal punishment of all who reject Him.
3. Acceptance of the doctrines of the Lord Jesus Christ as Savior, Sanctifier, Healer, and Coming King.
4. Full sympathy with the mission and core values of The Christian and Missionary Alliance and cooperation by systematic support of its work.
5. Such other qualifications for membership as may be stated in the bylaws.

Section B. Removal.

Persons may be removed from membership under one or more of the following circumstances:

1. Submission of a written letter of resignation to the elders of the church.

2. Failure to meet the qualifications of membership as stated above.
3. Disciplinary action taken under the Uniform Policy for Discipline, Restoration and Appeal of The Christian and Missionary Alliance. An appeal of decisions made to remove a person from membership for reasons of qualification or a disciplinary action may be submitted to the district superintendent within 30 days of the action.

The following sections are in addition to the sections above:

Section C: Procedures of Becoming a Member.

The following are the requirements for becoming a member:

1. Complete the application for membership and sign the Church Covenant.
2. If transferring from another church, provide a membership transfer letter from the previous church.
3. Complete a membership interview with the pastor and the elders.
4. Membership must be approved by pastor and elders.
5. Complete the First Hmong Alliance Church membership training class.

Section D. Canceling Membership.

Removal of membership may occur under any of the following circumstances:

1. If member(s) requests to leave.
2. Entering into membership with a different church.
3. Request a transfer letter to a new church.
4. If the member has become a non-believer or a follower of a different faith, the Elders will consult with the member to determine whether to terminate membership.
5. Any member remaining in inactive status for at least 1 year will be removed from membership. The Governing Board shall consult inactive members on their membership status. If the determination is made to terminate membership, the Governing Board shall provide that member(s) with a written termination letter.

Section E. Inactive Members.

Members who have not attended worship for at least 3 consecutive months will be placed in “inactive” membership status. Notice of this status change shall be communicated in writing to the member by the Governing Board. An inactive member can regain active membership status by attending worship service. The following circumstances are exempt from this process: health/medical absence, school/college attendance, work/career leave, and any other circumstances deemed appropriate by the Governing Board.

ARTICLE IV: ORDINANCES

Baptism and the Lord's Supper are recognized as the two ordinances of the First Hmong Alliance Church.

Believer's baptism by immersion is taught and practiced as the scriptural mode. The pastor or Elders shall oversee baptism. The pastor or Elders shall provide the instruction about baptism and administer baptisms or choose other spiritually respected individuals to do these ministries.

The Lord's Supper is administered regularly during the first week of each month. The pastor or Elders shall oversee Communion. The pastor or Elders shall provide the instruction about Communion and administer the Communion or choose other spiritually respected individuals to do these ministries.

ARTICLE V: MEMBER MEETINGS

Section A. Annual Meeting.

1. The Church Annual Election will be held by the second week of October.
2. The Church Annual Meeting will be held by the second week of December. The agenda will include business items, proposed bylaw changes, finance, committee reports, and transfer of duties to new officers.
All elected officers shall complete their annual reports and transition of duties during the Annual Meeting. All positions that are appointed by the Governing Board shall complete their annual reports within the Governing Board's meeting sessions.
3. Announcement of the Annual Meeting must be made to the congregation at least three weeks in advance.
4. Members 16 years and older will have the right to vote. Legally binding issues will require voting-eligible members ages 18 years and older only.
5. Only voting-eligible members that are present during the Annual Meeting are allowed to vote.
6. Church officer terms begin on January 1st and end on December 31st.
7. The church financial report shall be reported, by the prior year's treasurer, on the first week of February during the next fiscal year.

Section B. Special Church Meetings.

All special business meetings of the members shall be held in accordance with state law. At a minimum such meetings shall be called at least two Sundays prior to the meeting and notice of same shall be publicly announced either orally or in writing for two consecutive weeks.

Section C. Quorum.

A quorum of any properly called church business meeting shall consist of those members who are present.

Section D. Electronic Meetings.

At their discretion, the Governing Board and committees of the church may conduct electronic meetings when necessary to address urgent situations or due to scheduling conflicts. Pursuant to nonprofit laws, the electronic meetings must be synchronous and accessible to all board members.

ARTICLE VI: LOCAL CHURCH GOVERNANCE AUTHORITY

Section A. General.

Each local church shall structure its governance authority in accordance with the governing documents of The Christian and Missionary Alliance, the responsibilities of elders as defined in Article X, Section 1, the bylaws of the district, and the laws of the state in which the church is located. The members of the governance authority shall satisfy the scriptural standards for church leadership and shall be members of this church.

The senior pastor shall be chairman, or at his request, the governance authority shall elect an elder as chairman. An elder also shall be elected as vice chairman. Meetings shall be held for prayer and business, and abbreviated minutes shall be reported to the church as the church may decide. Special meetings may be called by the chairman or by written request of one-half of the governance authority membership. All officers, committees, and organizations except the Nominating Committee are amenable to the collective oversight of the elders.

Section B. Removal.

In consultation with the district superintendent and the senior pastor, any officer or auxiliary official, except licensed pastoral staff, of this church, whether elected at the church annual meeting or appointed by the governance authority, or any individual member of the governance authority, may be removed by a two-thirds majority vote of the governance authority and the approval of the district superintendent if, in the judgment of the governance authority, the best interests of this church will be served thereby.

Section C. Name.

The governance authority of the First Hmong Alliance Church (FHAC) of The Christian and Missionary Alliance shall be known as the Governing Board.

Section D. Governing Board with a Majority of Elders.

The Governing Board shall consist of seven members. They shall include the following officers:

- Pastor
- Secretary
- Treasurer
- 4 Elders

Section E. Age.

The minimum age for elders shall be 25 years old.

Section F. Pastor.

In the absence of a pastor, the Disciplemaking Ministries Coordinator shall become the seventh member to the Governing Board. The Disciplemaking Ministries Coordinator is not an elder in this role.

Section G. Officers.

The following positions are held by elders, selected within a closed Governing Board meeting: Deacon.

Section H. Term limit.

Each elder's term of service shall consist of 2 consecutive years. Elders shall be elected on alternating terms, with 2 elders elected each year. The Secretary and Treasurer shall be elected on alternating years. The Senior Pastor shall be a permanent member of the Governing Board.

Section I. Character.

Governing Board members must carry their life in accordance with the Biblical teaching of 1 Timothy 3, and Titus 1.

ARTICLE VII: OFFICERS

The officers shall be members of this church and shall satisfy the scriptural standards for church leadership. They shall consist of the following who, with the exception of the senior pastor, shall be elected at the annual meeting of the church: senior pastor, secretary, treasurer, assistant treasurer, and such other officers as may be designated in the church bylaws or in the state law.

ARTICLE VIII: PASTORAL STAFF

The Governing Board shall not give consideration to any candidate for the pastoral staff without the approval of the district superintendent. Pastoral staff members shall be called by the Governing Board and appointed by the district superintendent. The district superintendent shall suggest to the Governing Board the names of such workers as in his judgment have proper qualifications for pastoral staff. Upon appointment by the district superintendent, a pastoral staff member and spouse become members of this church. Pastoral staff include all those whose position calls for licensing as an “official worker,” as defined in the General Regulations in the Manual of The Christian and Missionary Alliance.

Any member of the pastoral staff may resign from this church by giving due notice of this intention to the district superintendent and the Governing Board. The Governing Board may, in conjunction with the district superintendent, ask for the resignation of any member of the pastoral staff. Before such action is taken, the Governing Board and that member shall follow the guidelines as prescribed by the district superintendent. The district superintendent, with the approval of the District Executive Committee, shall have the authority to remove or transfer a member of the pastoral staff when the Governing Board is in disagreement or whenever circumstances make such removal or transfer advisable, and the following additional sections listed below:

Section A. End of Pastoral Employment

1. Resignation or transfer notice of intent must be submitted in writing to the Governing Board and the District Superintendent of the Hmong District with a minimum one-month notice.
2. The Governing Board of the church, in consultation with the District Superintendent of the Hmong District, reserves the right to terminate pastoral employment.
3. If a Pastor’s employment is involuntarily terminated by the church, Pastor shall be entitled to 1-month’s salary as severance compensation. Pastor is not entitled to this compensation if he voluntarily resigns or is involuntarily discharged due to disciplinary reasons.

ARTICLE IX: DUTIES OF CHURCH OFFICERS

Section A. Senior Pastor.

The senior pastor shall have oversight of this church. He shall be chairman of the Governing Board except as he may choose to proceed according to the provisions in Article VI. He shall preside at all regular or special meetings of the church membership. He is a member ex officio of all church committees and organizations. When the church membership has no pastor, the chairman or vice chairman of the Governing Board shall have oversight of the church in conjunction with the district superintendent. The senior pastor shall be the president of this church where such office is required by law.

Section B. Secretary.

The secretary shall keep the minutes of membership meetings and conduct the correspondence of this church as directed by the Governing Board. The secretary shall attend and keep minutes of other meetings as specified in the local church bylaws.

Section C. Treasurer.

The treasurer shall receive all monies of this church and shall be responsible for the payment of all bills on the order of the Governing Board as specified by the local church bylaws, keeping proper book records of all transactions, and filing canceled vouchers and receipts for payments made. The Governing Board shall determine where funds of this church shall be kept. No offerings shall be solicited from the membership except upon approval of the Governing Board.

Section D. Missionary Treasurer.

When required by local church bylaws, the missionary treasurer shall account for all missionary monies and oversee the forwarding of the same to the treasurer of The Christian and Missionary Alliance on or before the tenth of the following month.

Section E. Assistant Treasurer.

The assistant treasurer shall, with another person or persons appointed by the Governing Board, be responsible to count all monies and keep a separate record of all receipts. The assistant treasurer may be empowered to issue receipts to the donors. The above sections are adopted from the Uniform Constitution of the Christian and Missionary Alliance. The following sections have been added below:

Section F. Chairman.

If the Senior pastor declines the office of chairman, the Governing Board must select an Elder to be the chairman. The chairman shall be responsible for leading all business sessions of the Church, and all meetings of the Governing Board. The chairman may delegate another to lead business sessions and meetings.

Section G. Missions Treasurer.

The church does not have an officer position for a Missions Treasurer. In the absence of this position, the responsibilities of this office falls upon the church Treasurer.

Section H. Assistant Treasurer.

In lieu of a Missions Treasurer, the church assistant treasurer will keep records of Great Commission Fund offerings. The church Treasurer will be responsible for sending the Great Commission Fund offerings to the Christian and Missionary Alliance.

Section D. Fellowship Elder.

The Fellowship Elder shall be responsible for planning, organizing, and lead fellowship events for the Church as approved by the Governing Board.

Section J. Prayer Elder.

The Prayer Elder shall be responsible for planning, organizing, and leading morning prayer and the preparation of the Lord's Supper.

ARTICLE X: COMMITTEES AND ORGANIZATIONS

Section A. Elders.

The call of Christ the Chief Shepherd to men to serve as elders is both discerned and confirmed by the church membership. Elders shall therefore be male members of this church and shall be elected as specified in the church bylaws. The pastor and the other elders are the highest level of servant leadership in the church. As undershepherds, elders shall serve with the senior pastor to oversee both the temporal and spiritual affairs of the local church in order to accomplish Christ's mission. They shall constitute the Committee on Membership. They shall be the Committee on Discipline in accordance with the Uniform Policy on Discipline, Restoration, and Appeal of The Christian and Missionary Alliance. All officers, committees, and organizations except the Nominating Committee are amenable to the collective oversight of the elders through the Governing Board.

Section B. Deacons.

The deacons shall be members of this church and shall be appointed or elected as specified in the local church bylaws. The deacons shall have charge of those ministries and charities of the church as specified in the bylaws, receive offerings for such purposes and dispense the same. Where there are no deacons, the Governing Board shall assume responsibility for their ministries until such are elected or appointed.

Section C. Deaconesses.

Deaconesses shall be members of this church and shall be appointed or elected as specified in the local church bylaws. The deaconesses shall have charge of those ministries as specified in the bylaws. Where there are no deaconesses, the Governing Board shall assume responsibility for their ministries until such are elected or appointed.

Section D. Trustees.

The trustees shall be members of this church and may be appointed or elected as specified in the local church bylaws. Trustees shall have charge of those ministries and duties as specified in the bylaws, or the laws of the state in which the church is located. Where there are no trustees, the Governing Board shall assume responsibility for those ministries and duties until such are elected or appointed.

The above sections are adopted from the Uniform Constitution of the Christian and Missionary Alliance. The following sections have been added below:

Section E. Alliance Men's Ministry.

The President will be appointed by the Governing Board, and the officers of the ministry will be appointed by the president with the consultation of the Governing Board.

Section F. Alliance Women Ministry.

The President will be appointed by the Governing Board, and the officers of the ministry will be appointed by the president with the consultation of the Governing Board.

Section G. Youth Ministry.

An Alliance Youth Ministry may be established in the local church. Officers will be elected within the ministry. The service term of the youth officers shall be August 1st through July 31st.

Section H. Deacon.

The Governing Board will appoint one of the elders to be the Deacon. The Deacon shall have charge of those ministries and duties of encouragement and support to the members of the church. The Deacon's role may include other responsibilities as assigned by the Governing Board.

Section I. Deaconess.

The Governing Board shall appoint Deaconesses as needed. The Deaconesses' responsibilities are to oversee meal preparations during major seasonal celebrations and special events. They shall also assist the Deacon as necessary for those ministries and duties of encouragement and support to the members of the church. The Deaconesses' role may include other responsibilities as assigned by the Governing Board.

Section J. Trustees.

The Governing Board will act as Trustees in the congregation.

Section K. Missions Committee.

The Missions Committee shall consist of one lead and (3) assistants. See Article XI for roles and responsibilities. Their term limit is set to two years.

Section L. Disciplemaking Ministries (DM).

The DM Committee will consist of the DM Coordinator, Adult Coordinator, Young Adults (YAMs) Coordinator, Youth Coordinator, Children Coordinator, DM Assistant, and the Pastor. The DM Coordinator is the head of this committee.

1. The DM Committee shall choose members of the church to fill the roles of teachers, youth sponsors, and teacher assistants. Once filled, the DM Committee will submit these roles to the Elder Board for approval.
2. The Hmong District will be the main source of Sunday School teaching materials. In the event that teaching materials from the Hmong District are unsuitable or unavailable, the DM Committee may review other sources for teaching materials. Teaching materials that are from outside sources must be reviewed and approved by the Pastor.
3. The elected members of the DM Committee (DM Coordinator, Assistant DM Coordinator) along with the Senior Pastor shall annually choose members of the church to fill the roles of the Adult Coordinator, Youth Coordinator, Young Adult Coordinator, and the Children's Coordinator. These roles will assist the DM Department with executing Sunday School and other church activities for these specific groups. Once filled, the DM Committee will submit these roles to the Governing Board for approval. These roles may be left unfilled at the discretion of the DM Committee.
4. The Youth Coordinator shall serve annual terms that coincide with the Youth Fiscal Year (August 1 through July 31). The Youth Coordinator shall be selected by the DM Committee by the end of June annually.

Section M. Ushers.

The Ushers shall consist of members who will assist in the church on Sundays, and on special occasions. Responsibilities include, but are not limited to: program distribution (if applicable), greeting guest(s), seating guest(s), handling offering(s), and providing overall security for the church property.

Section N. Worship.

In the absence of a Worship Pastor, the Governing Board will appoint a church member as the Worship Coordinator to lead the praise and worship teams. The Worship Coordinator will be responsible for all aspects of praise and worship.

Section O. Auditors.

1. The Auditors shall audit the congregation's financial records, including all committees that handle financial transactions.
2. Audits shall be performed bi-annually: one mid-year audit in July, and the final audit by end of January of the following fiscal year.
3. In the event of accounting deficiencies, the auditors shall recommend corrections and improvements in the internal accounting controls. In the event of financial deficiencies, the auditors shall inform the Elder Board and the congregation.

Section P. Building Manager.

1. Building Manager shall maintain the church building in a safe and usable state. Simple repairs may be handled at the Building Manager's discretion. In the event that a repair cannot be completed with internal resources, Building Manager may, in consultation with the Governing Board, seek outside expertise as needed.
2. Building manager shall manage the church custodian.
3. Building Manager will hold this position indefinitely until voluntary resignation, or is relieved of this duty by the Governing Board.

Section Q. Agent.

1. As directed by the church, the Agent will maintain inventory of all legal documentations and official correspondences from the Secretary of State. All legal documentations are the property of FHAC, therefore it is forbidden to use any legal documentation(s) for any other purpose(s), unless approved by the Governing Board.
2. The Registered Agent's position and duration is perpetual until voluntary resignation, or is relieved of this duty by the Governing Board.

Section R. Decoration Committee.

The Decoration Committee is appointed by the Governing Board. The Decoration committee will plan, design, and implement the decoration of the church. This committee shall consist of members serving a 2-year term.

The following 2 committees are Temporary Committees

Section S. Bylaw Committee.

The Bylaw committee is appointed by the Governing Board on an as-needed basis. The Bylaw Committee is charged with reviewing and editing the bylaws of the Church. Committee shall choose one leader and one secretary. All Bylaw Committee duties and responsibilities shall conclude after the Annual Meeting, unless the Governing Board approves an extension.

Section T. Finance Committee.

The Finance committee is appointed by the Governing Board. The Finance committee's responsibility is to prepare the next fiscal year budget proposal. This committee shall choose a leader and a secretary. Work is completed when the budget proposal is approved at the Annual Meeting.

Section U. Resignation of Elected and Appointed positions.

The following are the guidelines for voluntary resignation from elected and appointed positions:

1. A person resigning from an elected position must submit a letter of resignation to the Governing Board. The Governing Board will then notify the congregation to see if they will choose to elect a new replacement or let the Governing Board appoint a replacement to finish serving the term. This decision will be made by a majority vote of the members of the church.
2. A person resigning from an elder-appointed position must submit a letter of resignation to the Governing Board. The Governing Board will appoint a replacement to finish serving the term.
3. A person resigning from a committee-appointed position must submit a letter of resignation to the Head of that committee. The Head of that committee will appoint a replacement. The new appointee must be approved by the Governing Board prior to taking over the duties of the appointed position.

Section V. All Committee Meetings

All committees shall submit their proposals and/or reports during the meetings as necessary. All proposals must be in writing.

1. Proposal Meeting (Beginning of the Calendar Year)
2. Midyear Meeting
3. Year-End Meeting

ARTICLE XI: MISSIONS MOBILIZATION

The church shall participate in the worldwide missions and church planting ministries of The Christian and Missionary Alliance, and the support of the Great Commission Fund. The Governing Board shall specify the means by which it purposes to mobilize members' involvement, including prayer, recruitment of men and women for vocational ministry both at home and abroad. A Missions Conference or congregation-wide event for missions mobilization shall be held each year.

ARTICLE XII: DISCIPLEMAKING MINISTRIES

A major ministry of this church shall be making disciples of Jesus Christ. The discipling process includes evangelism, building up believers, equipping workers, and multiplying leaders, among adults, youth, and children. The Governing Board shall specify how discipling is to be pursued alongside Discipling Ministries. The purpose of Discipling Ministries is to bring people to a saving knowledge of Christ, each biblical principle emphasizing missions and the centrality of Christ as Savior, Sanctifier, Healer, and Coming King, and equip people for evangelism and Christian service.

ARTICLE XIII: PROPERTY AND RECORDS

Section A. Property.

This church may acquire, own, dispose of, improve, encumber, and convey property, real and personal, for church purposes, in conformity with the laws of the state where the property is situated. Real property may be purchased, sold, conveyed, exchanged, mortgaged, or encumbered only by order of the membership through the Governing Board in consultation with the district superintendent.

Section B. Records.

The official records of all officers of the church and all its departments are the property of the church. In the event of the death or resignation of the incumbent or upon the election of his successor, the current records of the office shall be passed on to the newly elected officer. All records other than current shall be kept in a secure repository selected by the Governing Board.

1. All legal documentations are the property of FHAC, therefore it is forbidden to use any legal documentation(s) for any other purpose(s), unless approved by the Governing Board.

Section C. Audit.

All financial records shall be examined/audited bi-annually or at more frequent intervals on order of the Governing Board. At least three persons, none of whom is a financial officer or a church staff member, shall be appointed by the Governing Board to conduct the examination.

ARTICLE XIV: NOMINATING COMMITTEE

A Nominating Committee shall consist of the senior pastor, two members from the church membership, selected by, but not necessarily from the Governing Board, and two elected from the church membership in a manner stipulated by the local church bylaws, prior to the annual meeting.

ARTICLE XV: ELECTIONS

In consideration of elections, the Nominating Committee shall present at least one name for each office to be filled. Other nominations may be made by the membership as stipulated in the church bylaws. The officers shall be elected by ballot on Election Day.

Section A. Characteristics.

All nominees for Governing Board and Committee Members shall possess characteristic as follows:

1. For Elders, please see Article VI on “Governance Authority” for qualifications.
2. Baptized according to the Christian and Missionary Alliance ordinance on baptism.
3. Must be a member of First Hmong Alliance Church for a minimum of 1 year.

Section B. Governing Rules of Election.

1. All communication shall be courteous, respectful, and professional.
2. Only members age 16 years and older are allowed to cast a vote.
3. Prior to nominating a nominee, approval must be obtained from that individual before the Nominating Committee can accept their nomination.
4. Nominees must be physically present during nomination and election to be eligible for nomination. The Nominating Committee has the right to waive this requirement under emergency circumstances.
5. Open nomination: Members who were not nominated by a voting-eligible member shall have the opportunity to self-nominate into any one open position. Nomination is only valid if another voting-eligible member seconds the nomination.
6. Nominator must state his/her name to the Nominating Committee for the record.
7. A voting-eligible member can nominate only one name per open position.
8. Nominator may present the qualifications of the nominee to the floor, not to exceed 2 minutes.
9. The Nominating Committee nominees cannot be re-nominated into any other open position.
10. If the Nominating Committee cannot fill any open position(s), the unfilled position(s) will be presented to the Floor for direction.

Section C. Retraction.

A member who has obtained consent to be nominated and has accepted the nomination for an open position may not retract his/her nomination. Exceptions will need to be reviewed and approved by the Nominating Committee.

Section D. Election Rules.

1. For any position which only one nominee is presented, the nominee shall be accepted into the position by majority voice-vote only.
2. Voting shall be in ballot form.
3. Each voting-eligible member shall be granted one ballot form only.
4. The Nominating Committee and Ushers are responsible for counting and reporting of ballots.
5. Nominees with the most votes shall be declared the winner. In the event of a tie, ballots shall be re-cast. In the event of a second tie, there shall be a prayer followed by a name drawing to determine the final winner.
6. For each ballot, selections beyond the allowable number for each position shall be invalidated per position.

Section E. Elected Positions.

The following are the elected positions of the First Hmong Alliance Church and their terms:

Secretary	2 Years
Treasurer	2 Years
Assistant Treasurer	1 Year
Elders (4 positions)	2 Years
Disciplemaking Ministries Coordinator	2 Years
Assistant Discipleship Making Ministries Coordinator	2 Years
Auditors (3 positions)	1 Year

Nominating Committee is responsible for recording all elected positions, noting that some positions are a 1-year term and some are a 2-year term.

The Nominating Committee shall document all elected nominee's pertinent legal information and present said documents to the newly elected Governing Board. The congregation shall hold prayer for the newly elected members before the end of the current calendar year.

Section F. Governing Board Appointed Officers

The following are the appointed officers within the Governing Board and their terms:

Chairman/Vice Chair	1 Year
Deacon	1 Year

ARTICLE XVI: REVERSION OF PROPERTY

Recognizing the purpose of the members of this congregation to support both the doctrines and the mission of The Christian and Missionary Alliance through the contribution of their tithes, offerings, and special gifts, and to ensure that the future use of such assets and real property as this church may from time to time acquire shall not be diverted from this purpose, this church adopts the following property reversion clause.

Section A. Property Reversion Events.

Any of the following shall constitute a "property reversion event:"

- (a) the decision or action of this church to disaffiliate or otherwise separate itself from The Christian and Missionary Alliance without the prior written approval of such decision or action by the District Executive Committee (or its equivalent) of the district in which this church is located,

- (b) the failure for any reason of this church to be subject to or abide by any of the purposes, usages, doctrines, or teachings of The Christian and Missionary Alliance,
- (c) the failure for any reason of this church to qualify as an “accredited church” of The Christian and Missionary Alliance (as such term is defined in the Bylaws of The Christian and Missionary Alliance), or
- (d) the termination of this church’s existence for any reason.

Section B. Determination of a Property Reversion Event.

The determination of whether a property reversion event has occurred shall be considered and decided by the District Executive Committee (or its equivalent) of the district of The Christian and Missionary Alliance in which this church is located in accordance with procedures established from time to time by the Board of Directors of The Christian and Missionary Alliance. The decision of such District Executive Committee (or its equivalent) shall be final and binding on The Christian and Missionary Alliance, the district of The Christian and Missionary Alliance in which this church is located, and this church, and may not be challenged by any party in the absence of fraud, collusion, or arbitrariness. Should any party choose to challenge a decision based on fraud, collusion, or arbitrariness, such appeal shall only be made to the Board of Directors of The Christian and Missionary Alliance. In order to expedite review of such appeals, the Board of Directors may establish a Board of Directors committee of not less than five Board members for the purpose of handling such appeals. The decision of the Board of Directors or its committee shall be final and binding on all parties.

Section C. Consequences of a Property Reversion Event.

Upon the occurrence of a property reversion event as determined in accordance with paragraph 2 above, legal title to all real and personal property (tangible and intangible), appurtenances, fixtures, and effects of whatever type then owned, held, or used by this church, without regard to how or from whom acquired, shall, upon the demand of the district of The Christian and Missionary Alliance in which this church is located, revert to and become the property of such district of The Christian and Missionary Alliance. During the period of time between the occurrence of the property reversion event and the complete and final transfer of legal title to the district of The Christian and Missionary Alliance in which this church is located, this church shall hold such property in trust for such district to be used exclusively to further the purposes, usages, doctrines, and teachings of The Christian and Missionary Alliance.

Section D. Waiver of Certain Property Reversion Events.

In the event of a property reversion event attributable to differences in doctrine between this church and The Christian and Missionary Alliance, the property reversion process set forth above may be waived upon the approval of

- (a) at least two-thirds of the members in good standing of this church,
- (b) the District Executive Committee (or its equivalent) of the district of The Christian and Missionary Alliance in which this church is located, and
- (c) Church Ministries of The Christian and Missionary Alliance.

Section E. Exclusion of Certain Property.

Paragraph 3 above shall not apply to any real or personal property which (i) this church owned prior to its becoming an accredited church, and (ii) is expressly identified as property not subject to paragraph 3 above in a written agreement entered into in connection with such accreditation between this church and the district of The Christian and Missionary Alliance in which this church was located upon its accreditation. The exclusion of property pursuant to this paragraph 5, and the agreement described in the preceding sentence, shall (1) terminate ten (10) years after this church's accreditation, and (2) not apply to any church that was in developing status prior to its accreditation.
